INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY REPORT ON PATENTABILITY

International Application No.

PCT/SG2004/000202

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. STATEMENT

Novelty (N)	Claims 1 – 17	Yes
	Claims	No
Inventive Step (IS)	Claims 1 – 17	Yes
	Claims	No
Industrial Applicability (IA)	Claims 1 – 17	Yes
	Claims	No

2. CITATIONS AND EXPLANATIONS (RULE 70.7)

NOVELTY (N) & INVENTIVE STEP (IS)Claims 1 – 17

The present invention relates to a method and an apparatus for extracting third ventricle information of the brain from MR images. The invention is characterised in determining a third ventricle midline and establishing the orientation of that midline. Furthermore, the invention is particularly characterised in calculating the third ventricle plane from the midlines having an orientation with the predetermined angle from the peak orientation.

The prior art documents (non-patent literature & patent documents) relate to fully automatic segmentation of brain structures using MR imaging. However, none of the prior art documents explicitly discloses or even suggests, either on their own or in any obvious combination of those documents, the precise method of extracting third ventricle information of the brain from MR images.

Consequently, the invention defined in the present claims is novel and possesses an inventive step in light of this cited prior art.

INDUSTRIAL APPLICABILITY (IA)Claims 1 – 17

The invention defined in the present claims finds application in medical imaging, and in particular neuro-imaging and neuro-informatics, neurosurgery, neuroradiology and brain research.
